

Sean Bigley Bio

Sean Bigley has been with the City of Roseville since 2005 as an analyst who works on legislative and policy issues for the city's Environmental Utilities Department. Environmental Utilities provides water, wastewater and solid waste utility service to Roseville's residents and businesses. Additionally, Sean also acts as the department's public information officer.

Sean previously worked for the State Attorney General's Office/Department of Justice as a Deputy Budget Officer involved in strategic budgeting and working on legislative issues specific to fiscal impact. Sean holds a Masters of Public Administration from California State University, Sonoma.

Sean lives in Rocklin with his wife and two daughters. In his spare time, he enjoys gardening, spending time with his family and running a small plant nursery business on the weekends.