

What are you going to do with those old cans of leftover paint in your garage? It's easier than ever to recycle it for free!

Thanks to a project funded by a grant from the Department of Resources, Recycling and Recovery (also known as "CalRecycle"), residents of San Joaquin County now have ten convenient locations to recycle leftover latex paint for free:

In Ripon at Schemper's Ace Hardware on North Wilma Avenue... in Escalon at the True Value on Main Street... in Lockeford at the True Value on North Highway 88... in Lodi at the Color Center on North School Street... in Tracy there are two locations: the Color Center on West Grant Line Road, and Van's Ace Hardware on North Tracy Boulevard... and in Stockton there are four locations: the Ace Hardware on West Benjamin Holt Drive, the Color Center on Pacific Avenue, the Valley Lumber and Supply Company on South Center Street, and the Glidden Professional on Monte Diablo Avenue.

So clear out some space in your garage, help create jobs in California recycling paint, and do something good for the environment too – recycle your leftover latex paint!

This offer is for San Joaquin County households only – sorry, no contractors or businesses.

What are you going to do with those old cans of leftover paint in your garage? It's easier than ever to recycle it for free!

Residents of San Joaquin County now have ten convenient locations to recycle leftover latex paint for free:

In Stockton there are four locations: the Ace Hardware on West Benjamin Holt Drive, the Color Center on Pacific Avenue, the Valley Lumber and Supply Company on South Center Street, and the Glidden Professional on Monte Diablo Avenue... in Tracy there are two locations: the Color Center on West Grant Line Road, and Van's Ace Hardware on North Tracy Boulevard... in Lodi at the Color Center on North School Street... in Lockeford at the True Value on North Highway 88... in Escalon at the True Value on Main Street... and in Ripon at Schemper's Ace Hardware on North Wilma Avenue.

So clear out some space in your garage, help create jobs in California recycling paint, and do something good for the environment too – recycle your leftover latex paint!

This offer is for San Joaquin County households only – sorry, no contractors or businesses.

Project funded by a grant from the Department of Resources, Recycling and Recovery (also known as "CalRecycle").