

POST-PRESENTATION SURVEY

1. Prior to this presentation, were you aware that the cost of managing leftover paint exceeds $16 million per year in California? Yes or No
2. Were you aware of Product Stewardship/Extended Producer Responsibility (EPR) policies and programs prior to this presentation? Yes or No
3. If you are with a local government agency, does your agency have an Environmentally Preferable Purchasing Policy? Yes or No
4. If you answered "Yes" to question 3, does your EPP policy a) include language to encourage the purchase of recycled-content paint and b) include 'take-back' language for leftover paint?

- a. Yes to both A and B
- b. No to both A and B
- c. Yes to A, No to B
- d. No to A, Yes to B

Funded by a grant from the California Integrated Waste Management Board and supported by the following partners:

5. Do you think the implementation of EPR laws would be a useful way to decrease the burden on taxpayers and government to manage leftover paint? Yes or No

6. Do you think the implementation of EPR laws would be a useful way to incentivize manufacturers to make their products less toxic and more recyclable? Yes or No

7. Comments on Question #1 - #6

SF Environment
Our home. Our city. Our planet.

A Department of the City and County of San Francisco

8. What was least useful about the presentation?

9. What was most useful about the presentation?

10. Please provide your contact information if you would like to be added to the CPSC email list to get updates on EPR progress in California and the U. S.

Name _____

Affiliation _____

Phone _____

Email _____

