

Nate Pelczar Director of Administration

Biography

Nate joined the California Product Stewardship Council (CPSC) in 2018 and currently serves as Director of Administration. He oversees the organization's various projects related to the reduction of household hazardous waste, the promotion of producer responsibility, product end-of-life management, and initiatives related to CPSC's administration and strategy development.

Nate received a Master of Public Affairs degree from Indiana University in 2005 with an emphasis in public policy analysis. He worked for over 15 years as a professional services management consultant, project manager, and compliance subject matter expert, serving both public sector clients (federal, state, and local governments) and private sector clients (Fortune 50 financial institutions, technology companies, and various international conglomerates).

Originally from the Midwest, Nate is an avid outdoorsman and spends his free time hiking, camping, backpacking, and traveling.
