

CPSC
California Product
Stewardship Council<sup>SM</sup>

Who Are We?

Since 2007, the California Product Stewardship Council (CPSC) has built a powerful nonprofit network of local governments, non-government organizations, businesses, and individuals supporting policies and projects where producers share in the responsibility for managing problem products at their end of life. CPSC is California's leading educator and advocacy expert on product stewardship, extended producer responsibility (EPR), and green design.

What Does CPSC Do For Our Funders:

- Provide a toolkit to better support current and future sustainability & producer responsibility programs
- Engage in our advocacy activities, education initiatives, & important regulatory and policy decisions
- Attend exclusive Policy & Education Advisory Committee (PEAC) meetings which discusses current legislation and advises the CPSC Board on policy direction
- Participate in monthly calls for Associates (local government only) to share updates on projects, programs, public education, & state/local policy information
- Collaborate on projects addressing hard-to-manage products
- Access education services such as newsletters, workshops, presentations, and webinars
