

Bani Dhaliwal

Associate I

California Product Stewardship Council (CPSC)

Bani Dhaliwal studied at the University of California, Irvine from October 2020 to June 2024, and graduated with a Bachelor's Degree in Environmental Science and Policy and a minor in Civic and Community Engagement.

During her time at UCI, Bani joined the Sustainability Project Commission under the associated student body and In the Green, a business sustainability club; both of which helped her gain skills in event planning, social media writing, and marketing. She participated in the UCDC program and interned with the environmental nonprofit, EARTHDAY.ORG, where she published several blog articles on various environmental topics.

Since graduating, Bani has been volunteering with Sierra Club's StopClearCuttingCA campaign. She creates and uploads biweekly social media posts furthering the campaign's message and highlighting recent environmental news.

In 2025, Bani joined the CPSC as an intern, and now as an Associate, is working on textiles programs and policy advocacy for extended producer responsibility. Email Bani at Bani@calpsc.org and connect on LinkedIn.
