

Bio:

Manuel Medrano is a Senior Recycling Specialist for the City of Chula Vista. He has worked in the sustainability field for 15 years focused on issues such as recycling, hazardous waste management, business development, and public education. Manuel belongs to several multi-agency committees and environmental health cross-border (U.S./Mexico) working groups. Manuel holds a Bachelor's degree from San Diego State University in Political Science and dual minors in Chicano Studies and Public Administration